The Conservative Resurgence
Chapter 23 * 1980 - 1993

What was the conservative resurgence and how did it affect the domestic and foreign policy of the United States?

23.1 – The Conservative Movement Grows
> SFQ: What spurred the rise of conservatism in the late 1970s and early 1980s?

Liberal	Conservative
	*
	*
	*
	*
	*
	*

Economist Milton Friedman argued that the strength of American rested on _____

New Right

What factors led to the unraveling of the Democratic Party?
1.
       a.
       b.
       c.
2.
       a.
       b.
       c.
3.

Moral Majority

In the 80s, voters in the south shifted their allegiance from _____ to _____ Why?

Ronald Reagan

Reagan's nickname was "_____"
      Why?

Who does Reagan defeat in 1980?

23.2 – The Reagan Revolution
SFQ: What were the major characteristics of the conservative Reagan Revolution?

Supply-side economics

Deregulation =
     What industries were targeted?
          1.
          2.
          3.

Budget deficit

National debt

S&L

     What caused the banking crisis?

John Hinkley, Jr.

What was Reagan's reelection slogan in 1984?
     Did it work?

What was unique about the Democratic ticket in 1984?

Which Supreme Court Justices did Reagan appoint?
     1.
     2.
     3.

PATCO =
     How did Reagan settle the PATCO strike?

George H.W. Bush

     What was his previous job?

Space Shuttle Challenger

A Nation at Risk vouchers

AIDS

23.3 – The End of the Cold War

     SFQ: What were Reagan's foreign policies, and how did they contribute to the fall of communisms in Europe?

President Reagan believed that the United States needed to weaken communism by

_____.

How did he achieve this?
1.
2. SDI =
3. Mujahadeen =
4. Contras =

Why did Reagan think his strategies would work?

Mikhail Gorbachev
    Glasnost

    Peristroika

In 1991, the Soviet Union broke into _____ independent republics.

_____ became leader of the largest republic, the Russian Federation.

Muammar al-Qadaffi

Iran-Contra

    Oliver North

23.4 – Foreign Policy After the Cold War

     SFQ: What actions did the United States take abroad during G.H.W. Bush's presidency?

Tiananmen Square

Nelson Mandela
    Apartheid

Saddam Hussein

    Operation Desert Storm