

Bureau of Labor and Statistics Worksheet

What is the career you are interested in? _____

- 1) Go to: www.bls.gov/ooh.
- 2) Enter your career in the search engine on the top right. Click Go.
- 3) Choose the option that best fits what you are looking for and click on it.
- 4) Begin your exploration and filling out the information below.

What do they do?

What are some typical tasks or responsibilities of your career? Are there different areas?

What are the typical Work Environments for your selected career? Which area do you want to work in once you graduate?

Training, Other Qualifications, and Advancement

What level of education is necessary for your career? What academic subject areas will most benefit a professional in your desired field? (ie. Math, Economics, History, etc)

What are some important qualities that a professional in your desired field must possess?

Are there any licenses or certifications you would need to obtain? If so, what are they? _____

Is there any information on how someone would advance in your career field?

Pay

What were the median annual wages for your career in 2010? $ _____

In which industries do you hope to work and what were the median wages for those industries?

Job Outlook

How many jobs were held in your field in 2010? _____

What is the job outlook for your selected career? _____

What is the projected growth rate for your selected career by 2020? _____ %

Related Occupations

What are some related careers/occupations? _____

Bureau of Labor and Statistics Worksheet

What is the career you are interested in? _____

- 1) Go to: www.bls.gov/ooh.
- 2) Enter your career in the search engine on the top right. Click Go.
- 3) Choose the option that best fits what you are looking for and click on it.
- 4) Begin your exploration and filling out the information below.

What do they do?

What are some typical tasks or responsibilities of your career? Are there different areas?

What are the typical Work Environments for your selected career? Which area do you want to work in once you graduate?

Training, Other Qualifications, and Advancement

What level of education is necessary for your career? What academic subject areas will most benefit a professional in your desired field? (ie. Math, Economics, History, etc)

What are some important qualities that a professional in your desired field must possess?

Are there any licenses or certifications you would need to obtain? If so, what are they? _____

Is there any information on how someone would advance in your career field?

Pay

What were the median annual wages for your career in 2010? $ _____

In which industries do you hope to work and what were the median wages for those industries?

Job Outlook

How many jobs were held in your field in 2010? _____

What is the job outlook for your selected career? _____

What is the projected growth rate for your selected career by 2020? _____ %

Related Occupations

What are some related careers/occupations? _____