- Grades will be due by 3:15 pm on December 24th
- Friday, December 20th from 10:15-11:55 can be used for make-up exams. The Library will be utilized as a test makeup area.
- Make certain your students know the weight of your final (20 %) and how it could impact their semester grade. It is important to show them how it gets calculated.
- A Study Guide should be given to the students at least a week prior to the exam.
- Finals are to be given when scheduled. Any changes to the exam schedule MUST be approved by administration.
- Please limit the number of students in the halls during these three days. Passes should be limited and issued only for significant reasons.
- Some class activity of some sort should be planned for the non-testing periods. Free time is not a class activity and often results in problems. The environment must remain conducive to studying for any student that might need/want to study.
- Review sessions should be structured review time.
- No food or parties should be planned during these three days.
- Make-up exams should be arranged with the Library staff.
- No visitors in classrooms during these three days.
